406 COUPÉ

“Stunning Pininfarina coupé comes close to Ferrari style... one of the most desirable coupés ever made... swift, smooth and very rewarding to drive: ★★★★★”.

– ‘Autocar’ magazine, UK, April 2002

The 406 Coupé is the product of one of motoring’s greatest collaborations – the engineering of Peugeot and the styling of renowned designer Pininfarina. This marriage of skills has produced many stunning cars over the decades. Its latest creation has even the most hardened motoring journalists lost for adequate superlatives.

Made in strictly limited numbers, the Coupé is as exclusive as it is beautiful.

A Grand Tourer in the purest sense of the term, the Coupé offers opulent luxury for four people in individual, hand-crafted leather bucket seats. Your two passengers in the rear will appreciate the generous space that they find there – this is most definitely not a 2+2 pretending to be something it can never be.

In summary, the 3.0-litre, quad cam 24-valve V6 is as finely designed and made as it is luxuriously equipped. As you will discover in detail overleaf.
